This is our new list of scheduled Vendor Shows for Calendar year 2019. We will be sending out formal invitations as each of these dates approach, but knowing how busy all of you are, we wanted to give you an early "heads up". We look forward to all of our shows and think that they will continue to all be very beneficial to our Customers, Vendors, and our Stores. We at Envision think we know what you would like to see in a vendor show (lots of qualified customers) and the most "bang" for your Marketing Dollars. We hope this list helps you plan your trips, and if we can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to call on us. Thank you (once again) for making our Vendor Shows in 2018 a tremendous success, and we look forward to your continued support in 2019....

DISCLAIMER:

Envision Xpress strives to support our key vendors and provide them with opportunities to showcase their product line in front of federal end users. We feel that the vendor show is an excellent means for your company to promote new product lines, best sellers and discuss key features of your commodities that are available for purchase through our Envision Xpress stores. By participating in our vendor show(s), you/your company agree to forward any customer inquiries/request for products/sales and future opportunity for sales that result from our vendor show through our Envision Xpress base supply store. You/your company also agree to not contact our end user customers direct without the written consent of the Envision Xpress store manager of the show that you participated in. Failure to abide by this disclaimer will result in you/your company being banned to participate in future Envision Xpress vendor shows.
